

FREE EXTERIOR HOME REPAIRS FOR LOW-INCOME HOMEOWNERS

Does your Home need
"A BRUSH WITH KINDNESS"

Habitat for Humanity of Greater Los Angeles launched the program A Brush with Kindness, to provide exterior home repairs free of charge to qualifying low-income homeowners. Repairs include, but are not limited to, painting, landscaping, and other minor repairs.

HOW THE PROGRAM WORKS

Interested homeowners must be able to demonstrate:

- Proof of ownership and residency in the Greater Los Angeles region
- Financial need. This program is for low-income households earning less than 80% of area median income.

See eligibility grid below

NO. OF PEOPLE IN HOUSEHOLD	1	2	3	4	5	6
80% GROSS INCOME LIMITS	$44,400	$50,750	$57,100	$63,450	$68,550	$73,600

A Brush with Kindness is a partnership that relies on Homeowners involvement. If selected to Partner with A Brush with Kindness, Homeowners must be willing to:

- Be on site and willing to work in various capacities everyday the volunteers are there during ABWK
- Must stay in home after repairs for at least 3 years
- Sign a covenant that demonstrates their understanding of partnership.

Home Repairs are led by trained crew leaders and completed by Habitat for Humanity volunteers.

HOW TO APPLY

Homes are selected throughout the year and are based on family circumstances, condition of the home and financial qualification.

If you qualify, please submit an application.

They are available online at:

www.habitatla.org and click on "A Brush With Kindness" or call (310) 323-4663, Renne Sanchez ext 144 to receive one by mail.

Applications are processed year-round and are done so immediately upon receipt. Program deployment hinges on funding and volunteer availability.

17700 S. Figueroa Street • Gardena, CA 90248 • (310) 323.4663
 Fax: (310) 323.0789 www.habitatla.org